National Framework for Action to Reduce the Harms Associated with Alcohol and Other Drugs and Substances in Canada

inciples	Problematic substance use is a health issue	Problematic substance use is shaped by social and other factors Human rights are respected Those most affected are meaningfully involved		Successful responses to reduce the harms associated with alcohol and other drugs and substances reflect the full range of health promotion, prevention, treatment, enforcement and harm reduction approaches Responsibility, ownership, and accountability are understood and agreed upon by all Reducing the harms associated with alcohol and other drugs and substances creates healthier, safer communities Action is knowledge-based, Evidenced-informed and Evaluated for results Strong partnerships are the foundation for success als	To create supportive environments that promote health and resiliency of individuals, families and communities in order to prevent problematic use of alcohol and other drugs and substances			To reduce the harms associated with alcohol and other drugs and substances to individuals, families and communities across canada
iorities	 of problematic substance use Reducing alcohol-related harms Preventing problematic use of pharmaceuticals Addressing enforcement issues 	 Increasing awareness and understanding of problematic substance use Reducing alcohol-related harms Preventing problematic use of pharmaceuticals Addressing enforcement issues Addressing fetal alcohol spectrum disorder 		e infrastructure: orkforce development ality, accessibility and range treat harmful substance use stance use disorders a national research agenda g knowledge transfer egislative, regulatory meworks	 To address the needs of key populations: Focusing on children and youth Reaching out to canada's north Supporting first nations, inuit and métis people in addressing their needs Responding to offender-related issues

